Robert and Leonard Ennis have sold their interest in the second-hand business to their partner, G. E. Barton, and have rented W. H. Fletcher's big farm in Vernon county and with the rest of the family will soon locate there. We regret to lose this excellent family.

A pharmacy in Sedalia did a phenomenal business last Saturday. It advertised that between certain hours it would give away a Lincoln penny with every ten-cent drink at the soda fountain as long as one thousand pennies lasted. They lasted about as long as was required to dish out one thousand ice cream sodas at high speed.

Will Sargeant and Will White settled a quarrel in police court Monday over some potatoes. Mr. White was fined $1 and costs for disturbing the peace. Mr. White was raising potatoes on Mr. Sargeant's land on shares and objected to him digging the potatoes without White's consent and put his objections so emphatically, it is said, that Mr. Sargeant received some severe bruises.

Mrs. G. E. Scrutfield will give a reception on her lawn next Monday morning in honor of Mrs. LaSalle Corbett Pickett, widow of the Confederate general, who will speak at the Chautauqua Sunday morning.

Mrs. N. C. Bishop Wednesday said she had that day received a card from Miss Josephine Maloney who had just visited Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's old residence and told of the visit. She said Miss Maloney started to work in their book store at 15 years of age at $1.50 a week and is now traveling for a publishing house at a salary of over $2500 a year, surely a splendid record.

While enjoying the nice cool morning Saturday we received the following card from A. H. Orr of Salt Springs, who with his wife is enjoying a Western trip: "We are enjoying a fine visit in the West. One can wear a coat with comfort all day. Feel sorry for you poor sweltering mortals in Missouri. We expect to arrive in Boise, Idaho, the 20th." Mr. Orr missed his guess—the weather is now delightful; we are saving the balance of the "dog days" for his benefit when he returns.

Going Away to School.

A good many people go off to school and find after arriving at their college that they have neglected part of their equipment. You should provide yourself with a knife, fork, spoon and napkin ring before leaving home. The Kelley-Vawter Jewellery Company is the proper place to secure these articles. Get them in time to have your initial engraved on them.

Has Ford Agency.

C. E. Reppenhen made a quick trip to Kansas City Wednesday and signed up for the Ford automobile agency for the western half of Saline county commencing Oct. 1st. The Ford is one of the best machines on the market and is the auto that won the great New York to Seattle race. He will have a machine here for display some time this month.

THE LAST BEST WEST!

If your interest has been aroused in Western Canada, do not let it lag, you will regret it if you do. Nowhere else on the continent to day are there such opportunities for farmers, merchants, capitalists and investors as in Western Canada. If you are not interested get interested and investigate. The land is now yet cheap but will double itself in a short time. One crop will pay for the land. Write are call on us for particulars. Cheap rates ever first and third Tuesday. Come and take a trip with us. Come and take a trip with us next Tuesday, Sept. 7th.

"Big Cities Are Vile"

Former Gov. Glenn Says We Are Doomed Like Sodom and Gomorrah

Chautauqua, N. Y., Aug. 23.—Asserting he had seen sights in the streets of both New York and Chicago so unspeakably vile that if he were to describe them the men in audience would pull him from the platform and trample him under their feet for daring to tell it before their wives, former Gov. R. B. Glenn of North Carolina said here that the wrath of the Almighty will descend on the land in some ruinous calamity, like the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, if the great cities don't mend their ways. "The great cities of the land are snapping their fingers in the face of the Almighty," he said. "The sins of Chicago are crying aloud unto the heaven. It is a disgrace to civilization. New York is a blot upon the map of our fair country."

"The people of the country are God fearing and pious, but in the cities, the only evil of Sabbath desecration will prove the ruin of the nation unless it is checked. It is Sabbath desecration that is at the base of most of our vice and crime, for the man who will violate the Sabbath is lawless, the man who is lawless is irreverent to the Deity, the man who is irreverent to the Deity has lost his conscience, the man who has lost his conscience will disregard the rights of his fellows, and mob law, vice and crime will result."

"Look at France which once was a world power and began its downward journey with the abolition of the Sabbath. Look at the fate of Portugal, once so great, now unimportant. It has not respected the Sabbath. Look at Mexico with its Sunday bull fights and its insignificance. I found the theaters with Sunday their biggest day in Chicago I found baseball with Sunday its biggest day. I found untold saloons and Sunday was their biggest day."

"I went into the slums of the city at night and saw there flaunting itself on the streets vice so unspeakable that the men of this audience would drag me from the platform and trample me under their feet if I described it before their wives."

"I went among the people of the best families and found the women and children drinking to an alarming extent, mothers giving their daughters strong drink and getting drunk on cocktails. I found many saloons and few churches. If the rising generation is to be trained in these conditions and have these ideas of Sunday desecration, of lawlessness and irreverence our country will be ruined."

Sam—"Mamma, did God make you?"
Mother—"Yes, dear."
Sam—"And father, too?"
Mother—"Yes."
Sam—"And sister, too?"
Mother—"Certainly."
Sam—"And me, too?"
Mother—"Certainly, foolish."
Sam—"He's improving right along isn't he?"

Press Clippings.

"Fountain pens," snapped the nagging wife, "remind me of some husbands." "What is the resemblance?" ventured the meek little man. "Expensive, can't be depended upon, won't work, and half the time they are broke." "That's pretty rough Martha but you couldn't compare a fountain pen to some women." "I guess not." "No a fountain pen will dry up and some wives won't." And then he made for the suburban trolley and made a bee line for town.

Craig Leader: As a result of a joke, Cabel Jobe, superintendent of the county farm in Norway county will lose the sight of his left eye. A little niece was taking dinner at the county farm on July 4. Jobe jokingly gave the little girl some vinegar, protesting that it was something else. On tasting it the child turned and threw it into his face. Part of the acid stuff lodged in his eye. After making several trips to St. Joseph to consult an eye specialist Jobe has given up hopes of ever being able to use the eye again, as the vision has been completely destroyed by the vinegar's effect.

Unionville Republican: An 18-year-old girl at Cincinnati, Ohio, is dead because of physical maladies caused directly by tight lacing and the gratification of her desire to always appear in the height of fashion. It's a wonder the infernal fashion don't claim more victims. The garbs that women wear would if forced upon the men, absolutely depopulate the earth of male inhabitants.

A matron of the most determined character was encountered by a young woman reporter of a country newspaper who was sent out to interview leading citizens as to their politics. "May I see Mr. —?" she asked of the stern looking woman who opened the door of one house. "No, you can't," answered the matron decisively. "But I want to know what party he belongs to!" pleaded the girl. The woman drew up her tall figure. "Well, take a good look at me" "I am the party he belongs to."

Christian Register: A negro preacher used the word "phenomenon" freely in his sermon, and was asked to explain it. He expressed it thus: "Breden, if you see cow dat no phenomenon; if you see a dis (le dat no phenomenon; if you hear a bird sing, dat no phenomenon." A Henry county editor speaking of Mrs. Besant's prophecies, tells of some people he knew who once before believed their time had come. They togged out in their Sunday finery, and to get a good start for their flight to heaven, climbed up on a haystack and waited. While waiting, they fell asleep and some mischievous boys touched a match to the hay. Those on top of the haystack awoke to find the flames shooting up about them and heard their leader excitedly exclaim: "In hell, just as I expected."

But, if you see de cow sitting on de distle and singing like de bird dat would be a phenomenon!"
